Jari is active in the fields of intellectual property, media and entertainment (including film financing), performing arts, sports, IT, privacy and data protection, market practices, consumer protection, e-commerce and telecommunications. Jari advises clients on any question related to these fields and has developed advanced skills in contract drafting.

As part of our litigation team, Jari represents clients before the Belgian civil and criminal courts, as well as before European and international courts and institutions. He has particular experience in copyright related disputes, including copyright collecting societies.

Over the years, Jari has also gained experience in matters relating to health law.

Jari obtained his law degree in 2012 at the University of Ghent and also earned an advanced master's degree in intellectual property rights at the HUBrussels.
