President of the Associazione
Internazionale Giuristi
di Lingua Italiana
(AIGLI), Milano (IT);

Vice-President of the Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce, Brussels

Member of the Brussels bar since 1995, Anna has gained broad experience in commercial law, international contract law and dispute resolution (with a focus on food & beverage, fashion/textile and mechanical sectors). She advises and assists clients in negotiating and drafting their commercial and distribution contracts, as well as restructuring their distribution networks. She also litigates before the Belgian courts on civil and commercial matters (with a particular focus on damage claims for wrongful termination of distribution contracts and non-conforming goods issues/judicial expertise's).

Recommended by Chambers & Partners due to her extensive experience in assisting international clients, Anna chairs MVVP's Italian Desk created to offer full-service assistance to Italian clients interested in doing business in Belgium as well as to Belgian clients with interests in Italy.

She is a regular speaker at international conferences. Particularly interested in ADR, Anna is also a civil and commercial mediator and is regularly appointed as arbitrator in commercial litigation matters.

Anna obtained her law degree from the Università degli Studi of Torino, Italy. She also studied intellectual property rights management (Gestion des droits intellectuels : stratégie, contrats et fiscalité de l'innovation) at the Université Catholique de Louvain as well as fashion law (Corso di Alta Formazione in Fashion Law) at the Università Cattolica of Milano, Italy.
