

CONTRACTS

PRACTICE AREAS

The consumer goods sector is very important in MVVP's practice. We assist companies in establishing and expanding networks of retail chains, preparing distribution agreements and contract termination matters. Our specialists also deal with all matters in relation to distribution, competition law, commercial leases and insolvency in the consumer goods industry.

We put particular emphasis on fashion retail and supermarket segments, which require advice on an ongoing basis on such issues as product labelling, sales promotion, price indications, product and price comparisons, procurement and supply, general terms and conditions, consumer protection legislation, and liabilities and warranties.
